

THANKSGIVING EVE

Leave the Light On Night

Wednesday, November 25

For anyone keeping a light on for someone who won't be at the table this year: a son, a daughter, a grandchild, a friend.

On Wednesday night, leave your porch light on. You don't have to tell anyone why.

If someone else came to mind, someone who's waiting too, send them this free book.

They Did With the Waiting*
